

GOLD COAST, AUSTRALIA, May 11, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- In a cluttered online universe it is difficult to find brands you can trust. Treasures Auctions understands this struggle for credibility and verifies both buyers and sellers before finalizing transactions. Treasures Auctions is a collective brand of verified international auction sites specializing in certified gemstones, coins, and fashion from Australia and beyond.

Becoming a verified seller means you must:- Have a passion and knowledge for gemstones- Be a member of a trade or jewelry organization- Offer wholesale prices not retail- Business and personal references to prove your established business and adherence to high business standards- Exchange wins if buyer requests

The Gemstone Sheriff Program This program is operated through a group of qualified Gemmologist and panel of advisers from the Gemstone industry. The Gemstone Sheriffs are tasked with mediating buyer and seller interactions within the Treasures Auctions network. All sellers are expected to adhere to the highest level of etiquette and will be given three warnings before being permanently suspended. An expected level of positive feedback is set at 95% with sellers being downgraded below that threshold. The goal of the Gemstone Sheriff Program is to conduct quality auction that will further the opal/gemstone industry.

Since the launch of the Gemstone Sheriff Program, over 2000 auctions have been revised to meet quality standards. Each auction listing is embedded with an option to request a Gemstone Sheriff review said item. A trained Gemologist is then tasked with clarifying any issues once a request has been made. Only eligible members can request a Gemstone Sheriff audit and will receive an internal memo of results delivered to his or her site inbox. Once the review is complete, the results will be publicly displayed on the specified auction listing in question.

Verified sellers are not allowed to link between Treasures Auctions' profiles to their own websites and are barred from spamming customers with any outside communications. Sellers remain unverified until they attain 20 positive feedback ratings and post 100 listings. Treasures Auctions brings millions of verified buyers and sellers together in a fast-paced and glamorous marketplace.

The Treasures Auctions brands include:Opal Auctions. A verified auction circuit of wholesale opal dealers from around the globe. Opal Auctions includes an in-depth blog and extensive opal education articles.
