

Molos Waterfront Restaurant Transforms Weehawken's Waterfront into Mediterranean Isle

Written by Australian Business

PATERSON, NJ, May 12, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Molos Restaurant & Catering, a new Weehawken restaurant on the Hudson River waterfront (formerly Arthur's Landing,) is proud to offer guests a taste of the Mediterranean through their high-end Greek-inspired seafood dishes. Run by father-daughter team Jerry and Eliana Stefanitsis, Molos serves only organic produce and spectacular fish flown in daily from all around the world in its 12,000 square foot, industrial-chic open space with floor to ceiling windows that offer spectacular views of Manhattan.

Greek born, Jerry Stefanitsis is a 30 year restaurateur who transformed the landmark Arthurs Landing into a glamorous seaside Mediterranean. Molos boasts an airy, modern dining room, an open kitchen, a raw bar and seafood counter and an extraordinary event space that can be transformed for every special occasion and recalls the breezy, sun-drenched Greek isles. Molos offers a second floor private dining room, which overlooks the Hudson River, and is available for all catering needs.

The guiding force behind Molos menu is Chef Athanasios Liavas who is certified as an executive chef by the New Zealand Culinary Federation was trained in Greece and worked for many years on Yachts as a private chef to many notables including Richard Gere, Tina Turner, Cher, established Greek singers, Mr.Samonias (shipping tycoon, Giorgos Papandreaou (former prime minister of Greece). The menu offers delectable dishes including Tiger Prawns, Lobsters, Lavraki (Mediterranean sea bass), Fagri, Black Sea Bass, Red Snapper, East and West Coast Oysters, and a Molos favorite, Filet Mignon.

Daughter Eliana affirms that most important to her is the sense of pride she experiences daily through Molos. "It gives us a sense of pride to show what Greeks have to offer to the rest of the world. We have products directly from Greece on our table, like our extra virgin Greek olive oil ... every little detail makes us prouder and prouder of where we're from and what we have to offer," she has said.

Molos also offers a full weekend brunch menu and private dining available for 20 to 160 people. Guests can choose to reserve the room individually or in combination with our central reception area and its bar.
