

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, May 12, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Walter O'Haire, vice president with Valuation Research Corporation (VRC), was elected to the Global Board of Directors for the Association for Corporate Growth (ACG), the global organization focused on driving middle market growth. His term will start in September.

O'Haire was elected for a three-year term ending in August 2017 as a chapter representative for ACG San Francisco. He has been involved with ACG since 2010. He is currently serving his second year as a co-chair of the Programs Committee, and has concurrently served as a co-chair of the annual M&A Conference in San Francisco. The ACG Global Board of Directors is responsible for the overall governance and oversight of the organization and seeks to advance public policy efforts and membership in the organization.

About the Association for Corporate Growth ACG's 14,500 members include professionals from private equity firms, corporations and lenders that invest in middle-market companies, as well as from law, accounting, investment banking and other firms that provide advisory services. Founded in 1954, ACG is a global organization with 56 chapters.

About VRC VRC furnishes expert and independent opinions of value for solvency, fairness, business enterprises, intangible assets, capital stock, equity interests, real estate, and fixed assets. VRC has provided valuations and value-related services worldwide since 1975. VRC has locations in Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, New York, Pittsburgh, Princeton, San Francisco, and Tampa; as well as international affiliates in Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, France, Germany, Luxembourg, Mexico, Spain, and the United Kingdom. Follow us on Twitter @VRCValuation and LinkedIn.