CALGARY, AB, May 24, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Skills to Achieve, an established leader in Career Development & Job Search, today announced plans for its upcoming Career Strategy Sessions on Tuesday, May 27, 2014 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:50 p.m..

The event will be held John Dutton Theatre, Calgary Public Library - Downtown Location. The goal of the Career Strategy Sessions is to teach people exactly what "opportunity killing" networking mistakes their making and how to make your new contacts work for them.

Corey Harlock, Creator at Skills to Achieve, said registration to the Career Strategy Sessions is limited and the cost is absolutely free.

"This Free Live Session will teach you how to work a room like the social elite and close the deal like a seasoned sales professional.," said Harlock. "The Inspiring speakers for this session bring you their own success stories, tried and true techniques and "real-world" advice from the trenches of the Recruiting and Human Resources world... where hiring decision are really made."
