

SAN DIEGO, CA, August 17, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- GoPaperless Solutions is pleased to announce its membership with the Electronic Signature and Records Association (ESRA), the premier trade association representing electronic signature adopters and providers.

ESRA's membership includes established companies and adopters such as Wells Fargo, USAA, Equifax, Experian, and Fidelity National Financial, to technology providers such as GoPaperless, Adobe Systems, AlphaTrust, DocuSign, Silanis and others.

"At GoPaperless, we share the ESRA vision to advocate the use of electronic signatures and records in order to positively impact consumers and businesses by making business transactions faster, more efficient and more secure," said Merhdad Alaei, CEO of GoPaperless. "As a growing eSign and solutions provider, we are excited to be members of ESRA to help drive policy and adoption of these practices."

"ESRA's growing membership exemplifies an increasing desire for businesses within every industry to better understand how they can effectively apply electronic signatures and records to their organizations to more efficiently conduct business," said Steve Bisbee, Membership Chair for ESRA and President and CEO at eOriginal. "ESRA provides a forum for organizations from various industries to unite under a common goal--furthering the adoption of electronic signature and records and helping professionals remain abreast of changing regulations."

As a member, GoPaperless receives access to the latest news and regulatory updates regarding electronic signatures and records and the opportunity to become involved in various public policy initiatives to promote their organizations' efforts and leadership by participating in ESRA-hosted events throughout the year. GoPaperless has announced it will be attending ESRA's eSignRecords Conference November 12 and 13 in New York City as an exhibitor and is excited to meet with peers and customers to talk about how to improve their business workflows.

About ESRA The Electronic Signature and Records Association (ESRA) is the premier trade association representing electronic signature and records industry adopters and providers. Founded in 2006, the organization's primary mission is to educate its members and the public on legal, public policy, regulatory and operational issues in relation to the use of electronic signatures and records across various industries.
