

VENTURA COUNTY, CA, August 21, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- A fresh and powerful new voice from the contemporary jazz scene, Cheryl Barnes (www.CherylDBarnes.com) recently released her full-length album Listen To This at <http://bit.ly/CherylBarnes-mp3> and is scoring airplay everywhere from KCRW in Los Angeles to WNVW (The Wave) in Cleveland.

Barnes' mystical soul-jazz ballad "Come With Me" at <http://bit.ly/CBComeWithMe> is already receiving spins on more than 60 terrestrial and internet stations in the smooth jazz format, and it has been nominated for a "Hollywood Music in Media Award (HMMA)" for best jazz song! HMMA's main event in November draws top industry elite, press, publicity and a wealth of talent from across the globe. Cheryl will have the opportunity to walk the red carpet alongside celebrities, press, photographers and media outlets that are there to interview artists and help share their story with the world.

Barnes' multi-format appeal has also earned her significant Triple AAA airplay for her heartfelt, jazzy rendition of Joni Mitchell's "Come In From The Cold" at <http://bit.ly/ComeInFromTheCold>." This week, her album has picked up more spins and is now chart bound on SmoothJazz.com's Top 50 Album Chart! You can get a free download of "What's On Your Mind" at <http://www.CherylDBarnes.com>.

Barnes worked with award-winning videographer David West for her recent music video for "Come With Me" on YouTube at <http://bit.ly/CherylBarnes-ComeWithMe>. The video features her singing at many of Southern California's most iconic locations and is being featured on SmoothJazz.com Global Radio and SmoothTravel Facebook pages and Twitter feeds.

The album Listen To This was produced by Rahn Coleman who has worked with legends such as Aretha Franklin, Tina Turner, Barry White, Ray Charles and Tom Jones. Barnes' show will be under the musical direction of the executive producer of Listen To This, Keyboardist Phillip Cabasso.
