FORT COLLINS, CO, August 22, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- VanMeveren Law Group's Managing Partner and Owner, Bryan S. VanMeveren has been recognized for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in law.

Mr. VanMeveren exclusively dedicates his practice to handling personal injury matters. His law firm is known for taking a detailed approach to preparing personal injury cases with thorough investigations, working closely with physicians and experts.

Mr. VanMeveren has practiced law for 20 years, including 12 years as managing partner and owner of VanMeveren Law Group. In addition to personal injury, his areas of expertise include wrongful death, product liability and premises liability. On a daily basis, Mr. VanMeveren represents plaintiffs in serious injury cases. Prior to forming his own law firm, Mr. VanMeveren was an attorney and a partner of Liggett Smith & Williams.

In addition to his work at VanMeveren Law Group, P.C., Mr. VanMeveren recently completed a six-year term on the Eighth Judicial Nominating Commission, which sits in the selection of Larimer County District Court judges. He also served for two years on the Colorado Supreme Court committee on the Rules of Professional Conduct and currently serves on the Larimer County Bench-Bar Committee.

Mr. VanMeveren received his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of South Dakota School of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of Wyoming. He was recently inducted into Worldwide Registry and also maintains affiliations with the Larimer County Bar Association, the Colorado Trial Lawyers' Association, the Colorado Bar Association, the Arizona Bar Association, and the Wyoming Trail Lawyers' Association. An avid health and fitness supporter, Mr. VanMeveren enjoys cycling, skiing, running and triathlons in his spare time. In the years to come, he plans to continue in his legal work.
