

Rellz Sets the Hip Hop Tone

Written by Australian Business

PETERSBURG, VA, August 23, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Music has been a long road for Rellz Tha Postman. He started rapping and making beats back in 98 and is still moving strong in the hip hop world. Currently he is releasing his newest album which is entitled "The First Stamp".

This project definitely displays "Tha Postman" at his high point. It features a song entitled "What it iz" with his cousin Bobby G Stacks performing at A+ value. If you are fans of real hip hop lyrical artists, this is definitely a must have. The lead single has been played on several LIVE365 channels and also on Back Stage Vibe Radio. The song is entitled LOTC which was produced by his brother Christobal The Vision and can be found on iTunes Amazon and many more.

The song is about Rellz being the leader of the Carteiros. Carteiro is Postman in Portuguese. Rellz does not speak Portuguese but alot of his fans live in Brazil. Rellz chose the name Tha Postman because he has always been complemented on his delivery IF you would like to listen or get a copy of "The First Stamp. It will be on iTunes and many other stores on 09/01/2014.

Find Me

Online:<http://www.charellz.blogspot.com><http://www.facebook.com/imrellz><http://www.youtube.com/user/rellzthapostman>