

Office Evolution Goes National and Opens Its Doors in Somerville, New Jersey

Written by Australian Business

SOMERVILLE, NJ, August 26, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Office Evolution, a full-service executive suite and virtual office solutions provider, has opened in downtown Somerville with plans for additional expansion throughout New Jersey. With flexible contract terms, transparent pricing and 24/7 access, Office Evolution allows busy professionals to focus on growing their businesses without the hassle and overhead of traditional office space. Located at 50 Division Street, Office Evolution is in the heart of a vibrant downtown with easy access to several restaurants and retail stores.

"The Somerville store opening is a milestone event for Office Evolution as it represents our first location to open on the east coast and the marks the first step in becoming a national player following the recent opening of our west coast office which opened in July," said Mark Hemmeter, Founder and CEO of Office Evolution. New Jersey husband and wife entrepreneur team Suhash and Ulka Bhavsar bring over a decade of business experience, with expertise in commercial real estate and marketing. "Their experience provides a perfect background for Office Evolution's services which include permanent and on-demand office space, meeting spaces, professional telephone answering, secure mail boxes and administrative assistance to small businesses."

"After years of working in the corporate world, we fell in love with Office Evolutions' model and concept of supporting small businesses with essential services," said Ulka Bhavsar. "Having grown up in New Jersey, we wanted to provide local entrepreneurs with great service and a unique place to further develop their ideas."

In celebration of their entrance into the Somerville business community, Office Evolution will hold a grand opening celebration and ribbon cutting ceremony with Mayor Gallagher, details as follows:

- Thursday, September 4th 6:00pm at 50 Division Street Suite 501, Downtown Somerville NJ- Cocktails and networking reception to follow- Raffle prizes include a certificate for one free month of virtual office space and a $150 certificate for use of a conference room
