

RALEIGH, NC, August 30, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- D & J Seamless Gutters LLC of the greater Raleigh, NC area encourages homeowners to prepare for the fall leaf season.

"Clogged gutters lead to a leaking roof and wood rot," said Johnny King, President of D & J Seamless Gutters. "We can clean your clogged gutters and install leaf gutter guards to keep your gutters from clogging in the future. Invest in your gutters now or pay for repairs later."

"Go to our web site," continued King, "and read our customer reviews - you will quickly see that I take customer service very seriously."

D & J Seamless Gutters is an Angie's List Award winner. You can read dozens of customer ratings and references on the D & J web site or on Angies List.
