

No Shortage of Activities for Crakmedia Employees

Written by Australian Business

QUEBEC CITY, QC, August 30, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Located in the heart of Quebec city, the web marketing company has always supported team spirit.

Crakmedia

deeply believes in offering employees an abundance of group activities paramount to working together.

Marie-Andree Lemelin-Breton, Crakmedia's Human Resources Director, mentions:

"Crakmedia has seen all its staff as members of the Crak family since the very beginning of the start-up. The growing number of activities made this vision a reality - even with more than 90 employees now... It's just one giant family and we're still growing!"

Sports are among the most popular pastimes at Crakmedia: Badminton, Hockey, Golf, Running, Hiking... even Luge! Whatever it is, employees can count on one thing - doing something that is extremely enjoyable after work hours, an activity that is guaranteed to involve their fellow colleagues.

Of course, sports are not the only type of activity offered: barbecues, cooking, theme evenings, costume parties, concerts... and so on. Crakmedia is delighted to mix things up and offer its hard-working family a chance to unwind with these various after-hour events. The company truly believes that this is essential to a healthy lifestyle.

Crakmedia Network is a company specializing in multimedia and e-commerce. Generating over 20 billion impressions monthly, its main areas of interest are contextual advertising and web development. For more information on Crakmedia, please visit

crakmedia.com

www.