BOSTON, MA, August 31, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Amen Alibi is excited to announce they will be performing at SPiN New York on September 6, 2014 at 9:00 P.M. SPiN New York is located at 48 E. 23rd Street in New York City. All ages are admitted before 9 P.M.; after 9 P.M., only ages 21 and older.

Amen Alibi released their debut album, "Leap of Faith," on July 4, 2013. Their second album, "Addicted," was released in March of 2014. Both albums have received numerous awards and two tracks are featured in the Top 50 on the Digital Radio Tracker rock charts.

SPiN New York is a ping-pong themed nightclub owned by Oscar-winning actress Susan Sarandon. SPiN New York has 17 ping-pong courts, a full bar, restaurant, pro shop and private VIP room. "Ping-pong is fun and playful and can be as challenging or carefree as you want it to be," Sarandon once said in a statement.

There are three sister clubs in Toronto, Los Angeles and the newest club, SPiN Dubai. In addition to the lovely Ms. Sarandon, SPiN was founded by Jonathan Bricklin and Franck Raharinosy.

Amen Alibi has recently played several sold out shows, including their last NYC show at Ella's Lounge this past July. During the one hour set, fans can expect to hear a mix of old and new hits from Amen Alibi., including award winners I'm Dying and Go Some More.

Proceeds from merchandise sales will go to Amen Alibi's Free the Kids Foundation. Free the Kids was founded to help fund music programs that keep kids off the streets and give them fun, productive activities.

NYC IndiePop Fest is promoted by "Get It On Presents." Amen Alibi will join the talented bands, Like Fake Humans, The Day We Met, The Daydreamers and Prosspekt.
