SAN FRANCISCO, CA, November 19, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Eugene Chiarelli, Attorney at Chiarelli & Mollica LLP, has been recognized for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in litigation.

For 35 years, Eugene Chiarelli has been providing litigation for real estate, business and commercial matters and class action matters in the San Francisco Bay Area. He primarily represents mid-size companies and large corporations, but has extensive experience in other arenas as well. Mr. Chiarelli has successfully represented title insurance companies, national banks, as well as construction companies facing contract disputes. For his exemplary work in his career, Mr. Chiarelli was listed among North America's Top Attorneys.

Mr. Chiarelli is considered one of the best lawyers in his region and he has worked hard to earn this recognition. To keep himself on top of his industry, he has been affiliated with the California State Bar, the American Bar Association, California Land Title Association and the American Land Title Association. In the years to come, Mr. Chiarelli intends to expand the size of the firm while mentoring young associates.
