

Richard Lockner has Practiced in the Legal Field for over Two Decades

Written by Australian Business

TACOMA, WA, November 19, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Attorney Richard William Lockner of Lockner & Crowley, Inc., P.S. has been recognized for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in law.

Lockner & Crowley, Inc., P.S. is a law practice that specializes in trial litigation. Practice areas predominantly include representing defendants involved in automobile or other injury causing accidents. Practice areas also include representing insurance entities in first party claims, PIP claims, coverage issues and extra contractual claims. Mr. Lockner also has extensive litigation experience in matters involving criminal law, family law and contract disputes.

Mr. Lockner has 24 years of experience in the practice of law. Mr. Lockner has litigation experience in the Superior, District and Municipal Courts of Washington, as well as in the United States District Court. Mr. Lockner's extensive experience includes numerous jury trials, bench trials and mediations. Mr. Lockner has also served as a single and panel member arbitrator on private arbitrations. Recognized for his work, Mr. Lockner has been rated AV for excellence by Martindale-Hubbell since 2004.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Lockner was employed as a regional sales manager and national sales trainer for a multi-national company. Mr. Lockner received a Juris Doctor from the University of Puget Sound. He was recently inducted into Worldwide Registry and also maintains affiliations with the State Bar of Washington. In the coming years, Mr. Lockner and his firm plan to continue serving their clients with the highest standards.