

Cash-n-Carry Motors Will Give a 2007 Ford Taurus to One Lucky Winner

Written by Australian Business

SAVANNAH, GA, November 19, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Cash-n-Carry Motors has announced a drawing scheduled for November 22, 2014, with a 2007 Ford Taurus as the grand prize. Participants must be eighteen years old, have a phone number, and an email address.

The 2007 Taurus has front-wheel drive, 130,000 miles, is NIADA Certified, has a four-speed automatic transmission and a 3.0-liter V6 engine. Features include 16-inch wheels, four-way manual front passenger seat, AM/FM/Cassette stereo system, cargo tie downs, child safety locks, cruise control, air-conditioning, front split bench seat and much more.

To enter the drawing all one has to do is fill out the Win a Ford Taurus entry form . Only one entry per person, but there are bonus (additional) entries given for each of the following:

- Sharing on Facebook - Liking the Cash-n-Carry Fan page- Following Cash-n-Carry Tweets- Following Cash-n-Carry Pins on Pinterest- Test drive a car during the three-day event- Attend the drawing on the 22nd

The more you share on social media, the more entries you get.

Participants need not attend in order to win the contest, which is scheduled for 4:00 pm EST.

This is not the first time Cash-n-Carry Motors has given away a vehicle. Kenny Grainger explains: "Our family has been embraced by the people of Savannah for five decades, and this is our way of saying thank you. Times are still tough in this economy, and we thought this drawing would be a great way to stimulate the economy for one customer. Think of it as an early Christmas present for one lucky person."

Cash-n-Carry Motors is the newest used car dealership in Savannah, but the name "Cash-n-Carry" has been well-known for over five decades. The Grainger family, owners of Cash-n-Carry Motors and Cash-n-Carry Salvage Yard , has been in the auto parts business in one fashion or another since 1966 and they are heavily invested in the past, present, and future of Savannah. Active members of the Chamber of Commerce and tireless workers for charitable causes, Cash-n-Carry owners and employees reflect down home Southern values and have always strived to put the needs of their customer first. As Kenny Grainger often says, "We work and live in Savannah, and we treat each and every customer as though they were a visitor to our home."

Cash-n-Carry Motors Will Give a 2007 Ford Taurus to One Lucky Winner

Written by Australian Business

Cash-n-Carry Motors is home to the Guaranteed Credit Approval Program . Their hotline for instant credit approval is 912-429-7894.