NAPLES, FL, November 19, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- RWA, Inc., a professional services firm based in Naples, Florida offering land use planning, civil engineering, surveying and mapping, hosted a ribbon cutting event on Thursday, November 13, marking the re-opening of a Fort Myers office and celebrating 18 years in business. Many local executives and invited guests were in attendance for the Backyard BBQ event.

The festivities kicked off with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 4983 Royal Gulf Circle. Guests then enjoyed BBQ and refreshments as they toured the new office and socialized.

"We are honored by the positive response we have received about our Fort Myers office opening and our 18-year anniversary," said Christopher Wright, P.E., RWA CEO. "RWA looks forward to many more years of providing superior engineering services for our clients in the region."

The Fort Myers office is centrally located on the corner of Ben C. Pratt/Six Mile Cypress Parkway and Winkler Avenue, providing more accessibility for RWA employees and clients in the area.

RWA focuses on planning, engineering and surveying projects throughout Southwest Florida in Lee, Collier, Hendry, Charlotte, and Sarasota counties. The firm services commercial and residential real estate as well as non-profit and government sectors.

Since inception in 1997, the company has been committed to extraordinary relationships with clients, peers, and the environment as a driving force behind its growth, success, and accomplishment. RWA is dedicated to the delivery of excellent service by consistently providing inventive solutions and customized strategies.
