

AKUREYRI, BULGARIA, November 20, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Most of the gifts range from $20 to $40 although some go for as much as $150 and above. Like is expected, the gifts are placed in categories from which customers can browse and pick. Recently, some gifts were added to the "

Gifts for animal lovers

" category in an effort to take care of customers whose recipients are die hard animal lovers. It should be noted that has several other categories should a customer change their mind on purchasing a gift related to animals and instead want to opt for something else.

giftytreat.com

On the Gifts for animal lovers category are subcategories. The gifts are placed in such subcategories like frogs, pigs, roosters and unicorn. This way, it becomes easier for a customer to focus their search on gifts related to a particular animal say birds instead of browsing through several pages of product listings. To narrow down on birdhouses, one just needs to click on the link for the subcategory to access a listing of all birdhouses. If something is intriguing, a customer can add it to their shopping cart by clicking on the + button placed beside its price.

With the additions came functional items. Initially, giftytreat.com sold animal gifts which were only meant to be kept as memoirs. These include figurines of dolphins, dragons, eagles and other popular animals. However, some more interesting items like the rooster decorative fan and the frog decorative fan were only added recently. They might be expensive considering their functionality but unlike the others a customer can be assured that their recipient will not tuck it in some box after a few days from which it will later find its way into the garage. Not to say that the appeal of Giftytreat.com's will pass with time; actually, each one of them is carefully selected so that they will be treasured for a lifetime instead of being tucked away.

As said before, most of the items' prices range between $20 and $40 including the birdhouses. With prices so low, customer get the allowance to shop from other categories and gift other of their treasured persons without feeling such a big pinch in their pockets. Available payment channels include Discover, MasterCard, Maestro, Visa, Visa Electron and Skrill.

There are gifting sites and then there's Gifty Treat, helping you find the perfect gift at the perfect price, delivered in record breaking time to absolutely anywhere in the world.
