WILLIAMSBURG, VA, November 20, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Helena Mock, Attorney for The Peninsula Center for Estate Planning and Elder Law, has been recognized for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in end-of-life planning.

Helena Mock is an estate planning and elder law attorney serving the Hampton Roads Virg., area for the past 14 years. In her position at the helm of the firm, she focuses on advising her clients on all facets of estate, tax and long-term care planning. She works one-on-one to develop a customized plan of action to fit each client's goals and objectives. For her excellence over nearly two decades, Ms. Mock has been listed among the Top Attorneys in Virginia. She is also a six-time recipient of the Virginia Business' Legal Elite List recognition.

A graduate of the College of William and Mary, Marshall-Wythe School of Law, Ms. Mock holds a JD degree and has been an adjunct professor of law at the law school for more than 10 years, where she currently serves as managing attorney for the law school's elder law clinic and was recently named the Sir George Tucker Adjunct Professor of Law for 2014-15. She is also an accredited attorney with the Department of Veterans Affairs which enables her to assist veterans with obtaining various benefits. To remain involved in her professional community, she is a board officer for the Peninsula Estate Planning Council, a member of the Advisory Board for Dream Catchers (a Therapeutic Riding Center), and a board member for Mary Immaculate Hospital in Newport News. Ms. Mock is also an affiliate of the Williamsburg Bar Association, the Virginia Bar Association and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.

In the years to come, Ms. Mock intends to continue showcasing her passion for the legal field by providing clients with a very high level of professional advice and direction. For more information, please visit <http://www.tpcestate.com> .
