

ST. GEORGE, UT, November 20, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- LearnKey today announces that the Project Management Institute (PMI), the world's largest project management member association, has named it as a Registered Education Provider (R.E.P.) effective October 21, 2014. R.E.P.s are organizations that have been approved by PMI to help project managers achieve and maintain the Project Management Professional (PMP) , Program Management Professional (PgMP) , and other PMI professional credentials. These organizations have met PMI's rigorous quality criteria for course content, instructor qualification, and instructional design.

Project managers are increasingly turning to R.E.P.s for certification training and maintenance, especially since global median salaries for the profession now exceed $85,000 (USD). For over twenty-seven years LearnKey has provided world-class training targeted at preparing students, learners, teachers, and veterans for industry certifications and providing them with the skills necessary to succeed in their careers. With a broad range of IT certification prep and career readiness courses, LearnKey is a comprehensive training solution.

"We are thrilled at becoming a Registered Education Provider and to be part of such a successful company," says Jeff Coruccini, CEO of LearnKey "We understand the high standards required to be part of this program and are proud to have met them."

LearnKey joins more than 1,500 R.E.P.s in more than 80 countries. These organizations include commercial training providers, academic institutions, and corporate training departments within corporations and government agencies.
