

Written by Business News

---

Unique "CyberWISE" technology developed by Secure Decisions, with assistance from the State University of New York at Stony Brook will be used to create visually compelling cyber security training materials.