

Written by Business News

---

The three-year agreement enables the non-profit operator of continuing care retirement communities to convert to e-invoicing and streamline all payment processes.