

St. Mary's May Be Negligent in Baby Deaths, According to Local Lawyers

Written by Business News

It appears that there may be evidence that strongly suggests St. Mary's Medical Center and its hospital staff may be negligent in conducting complex, risky heart surgeries on babies, resulting in harm or death, according to local lawyers.