

The show "A Walk around the World" will be re-edited as video clips that are optimized for more than 10,000 mobile devices. They will be provided to travelers' smart devices as multi-language content, based on location via Travalloon's application.