

Hepatitis Advocates Urge Philadelphia to Support Citywide Screening, Prevention and Treatment

Written by Business News

An estimated 65,000 Philadelphians are living with chronic hepatitis B or C, and most go undiagnosed and untreated