

Global Events and Marketing Pty Run Competition for Trip to Melbourne

Written by Business News

Australian firm Global Events and Marketing Pty announced this week that they will run a competition to attend an industry event in Melbourne on 4th July. The event promises to be a valuable and eye opening experience for the winner.