

This makes Aircraft Management Group, Inc. the first company in the world to have the Latitude available for charter.