

New Ambulance Service Launches in Metro Denver

Written by Business News

Colorado and California ambulance-industry veteran Michael Donner, co-founder and former president of Pridemark Paramedics Services, has launched a new company to provide emergent and non-emergent ambulance services to the Denver metro area.