

Company selected for fourth year in a row

CALGARY, Oct. 1, 2013 /PRNewswire/ - Cenovus Energy Inc. (TSX: CVE) (NYSE: CVE) is being recognized again for its leadership in the reporting of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions with its inclusion in the 2013 Canada 200 Climate Disclosure Leadership Index. This is the fourth consecutive year that Cenovus has been named to the index which is published by CDP (formerly known as the Carbon Disclosure Project).

"At Cenovus, we've made a promise to produce energy resources responsibly," said Sheila McIntosh, Cenovus Executive Vice-President, Environment & Corporate Affairs. "This recognition is a testament to the transparency of our environmental reporting. We'll continue to focus on minimizing our greenhouse gas emissions and maintaining our high standards of emissions disclosure."

CDP's annual Canada 200 Climate Disclosure Leadership Index (previously the Canada 200 Carbon Disclosure Leadership Index) highlights the largest 200 companies (by market capitalization) listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange that have demonstrated excellence in reporting GHG emissions and have a good understanding of GHG related issues affecting the company.

"Canadian companies that score highly enough to be included in the Climate Disclosure Leadership Index are responding to the call for greater corporate climate accountability," said Paul Simpson, CDP Chief Executive Officer. "They have demonstrated leading practices in the measurement and disclosure of greenhouse gas emissions and energy use, and transparency in their climate change strategy."
