

United Technologies Cancels Furlough Plans

Written by Australian Business

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 6, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- United Technologies Corp. (NYSE: UTX) has canceled plans to furlough employees at its aerospace businesses following the recall of Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) inspectors responsible for auditing and approving operations throughout the manufacturing process for military products.

United Technologies greatly appreciates the efforts of those in the Administration and Congress who facilitated the recall of the furloughed civilian employees in the U.S. Department of Defense.

United Technologies, based in Hartford, Conn., provides high technology products and services to the building and aerospace industries. For more information, visit our website at www.utc.com or follow us on Twitter: @UTC.

Contact: John Moran (860) 728-7062 www.utc.com

SOURCE United Technologies Corp.

RELATED LINKS <http://www.utc.com>