

Six New Patents Issues to Utah Inventors Represented by Utah Patent Attorney Steven Rinehart

Written by Australian Business

---

( PRLEAP.COM ) Six patents to Utah corporations/inventors represented by Utah patent attorney

Steven Rinehart were recently issued by the US Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), including the following patents:

1. Apparatus, System and Method for Stepper Motor Stall Detection (Patent No. 8,242,732 );
2. Means of Processing Fuel Grade Petroleum Coke for Use in Internal Combustion Engines (Patent No. 8,445,547);
3. Convective Dissolution of Salts in Situ Ponds (Patent No. 8,388,702);
4. Means for Directing a Caller Through an Interactive Voice Response System and of Making Use of Prerecorded Precategorized Scripts (Patent No. 8,358,772);
5. Apparatus and Method for Securement of Two-Dimensional Bar Codes Having Geometric Symbology (Patent No. 8,215,565 );
- and 6. Enterprise System and Computer Program Product for Inter-connecting Multiple Parties in an Interactive Environment Exhibiting Virtual Picture Books (Patent No. 8,269,813).

Steven Rinehart is a Utah patent attorney representing inventors in patenting a variety of technologies across the State of Utah and Commonwealth of Virginia.