will be the Detroit metro car service to rely on during the jazz festival. The company confirms that it is continuing its partnership with WEMU 89.1 just in time for the 34th annual Detroit Jazz Festival. Shuttle services for attendees of the event are available for a round trip cost of $15.

The jazz festival begins on Friday, August 30, and continues through Monday, September 2. Out-of-town visitors usually stay at the Detroit Marriott at Renaissance Center. The Mack Avenue Records Waterfront Stage is off the River Walk while the Carhartt Amphitheatre Stage is closer to Jefferson. Golden Limousine will provide the shuttle service between Detroit and Ypsilanti.

Shuttles start on August 31. The first shuttle is scheduled to leave the Eastern Michigan University parking lot at 11 a.m. The exact departure point is the corner of Mayhew Street and North Huron River Drive. Two additional shuttles depart from this venue. The first one departs at 1 p.m. and the second one leaves at 4 p.m. This schedule also remains in effect for Sunday, September 1. On Labor Day, there are only two scheduled shuttles. The first leaves at 11 a.m. while the second departs at 2 p.m.

The return trips depart from the corner of Woodward and Jefferson in Detroit. The first return trip, on August 31, takes place at 3 p.m. Second and third return trips are scheduled for 9 p.m. and 11 p.m. respectively. On Labor Day, there will be two return trips. The first one leaves at 5 p.m. The last shuttle departs at 8 p.m.
