

Hooman Toyota of Long Beach Continues to See Sales Growth

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Long Beach, CA – Hooman Toyota of Long Beach, a leading Toyota dealer in Southern California, today reported continued sales growth in the month of September. Overall, Toyota Motor Company saw an increase of 4 percent over September 2012 on a daily selling rate basis. The continued sales increases can be attributed to the launch of the new Corolla model which reached the dealership in September as well as the ongoing popularity on the Camry model.

"September was a strong month for us," said Hooman M. Nissani, president and owner of Hooman Toyota. "As interest rates stay low, our customers are more interested in purchasing and leasing quality vehicles and trading in the cars they were previously holding on to due to the slow economy."

The new, 2014 Corolla model which was among the top selling vehicles this September makes a stronger design statement, with more compelling exterior and interior executions that challenge the pre-conceptions about mid-class sedans. This design-focused vehicle remains appealing to the current consumers while helping the world's most popular car grow in appeal with youthful car buyers.

There are many reasons to choose a Toyota such as reliability, great fuel economy and style and with a range of new models and certified pre-owned vehicles available now is an excellent time to visit Hooman Toyota of Long Beach. The dealership is committed to helping clients find the vehicle they want at a price they can afford.
