- Hazelwood Allied Moving and Storage, an award-winning Santa Barbara moving company

, is pleased to announce the addition of Owen Foreman as Operations Manager. The Santa Barbara moving company

believes that Mr. Foreman's in-depth background and experience will add to its ability to bring an unparalleled experience, a passion for excellence and an unrivaled attention to detail to every relocation.

Mr. Foreman has been in the moving and packaging business since 2003, and most recently worked with United Van and Storage, Lompoc, CA. He is an active participant in the California Moving & Storage Association and has a unique skill set in logistics management. Owen has over a decade of experience in the moving industry and is capable of solving the most complex relocation problems.

"Today, moving and relocation jobs require creative thinking and a steady resolve to handle an immediate moving problem," said Casey McCann. "We're glad to bring Owen on board this year and believe his efforts will be crucial to the company's operations."
