( PRLEAP.COM ) Arden, NC - Go Mini's, the expert in mobile storage containers , is bringing excellent business opportunities to the upcoming West Coast Franchise Expo to be held in Anaheim, CA on October 24-26. At this largest franchise expo in the west, entrepreneurs will be able to meet with Go Mini's experienced franchise professionals and learn about the benefits and financial opportunities of owning a trusted portable and self-storage franchise.

Go Mini's provides new franchisees with various tools and resources, including intense training at the corporate training center located in Arden, North Carolina as well as ongoing online software support and an extensive two weeks of onsite support if needed. This is an excellent franchise opportunity for markets of 300,000 or more as well as small markets when added to an existing self-storage operation.

Go Mini's is among the top franchise opportunities in the industry and this self-storage company has achieved a dominant international presence throughout North America and is the only portable storage franchise operator to offer 20-foot storage containers which have proved to be the most popular product in the industry. Go Mini's continuously provides the highest level of customer service satisfaction.
