capabilities. Utilizing Allied's chain of independently owned facilities enables customers to take advantage of cross-border manufacturing opportunities, find warehousing solutions, minimize fuel costs, and insure just-in-time delivery to end users. Keeping up-to-date on the latest supply chain and warehouse solutions is imperative to providing the best services possible to clients and support to supply chain partners.

That is why Allied's president, Rob Nemeth plans to attend the 2013 CSCMP's Annual Global Conference, which will be held from October 20-23 at the Colorado Convention Center in Denver, CO. The CSCMP (Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals ) is celebrating 50 years of providing members and their organizations with the education, research, connections, and professional growth needed to achieve ongoing success in the supply chain consulting industry.

In addition to attending educational sessions, round tables, a supply chain exchange, and networking opportunities, Nemeth will have the opportunity to hear a keynote presentation from Felipe Calderón, the former President of Mexico on the topic of "Expansion, Innovation, and Transformation: What It Takes to Lead." Mr. Calderon will expand on the understanding that the supply chain profession is critical to organizations around the world, as well as to countries and their economies. The scheduled Major Session Speaker is Peter Carlsson, Tesla Motors' Vice President of Supply Chain, who will speak on the topic of, "Building a Complex Supply Chain from the Ground Up."

"I'm excited about all of it," said Nemeth. "The CSCMP organization is a great networking opportunity. My team from Allied Distribution and I enjoy meeting new customers and rekindling our business relationships each year. I'm looking forward to hearing the keynote speaker Felipe Calderón, as well as learning new strategies that will benefit our nationwide network and improve the services that we offer to our customers."

Founded in 1963, the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals is the preeminent worldwide professional association dedicated to the advancement and dissemination of research and knowledge on supply chain management. With over 8,500 members representing nearly all industry sectors, government, and academia from 67 countries, CSCMP members are the leading practitioners and authorities in the fields of logistics and supply chain management.

Nemeth concluded by adding that the services Allied Distribution offers range from supply chain consulting to warehouse logistics , with industry sectors that range from CPG to aerospace products. He appreciates the opportunity to attend industry gatherings such as this where he can gather information, learn about the industry's latest advances, and meet potential partners and customers.
