

Berger Transfer Receives Multiple Awards at Allied Van Lines' Agent Convention

Written by Australian Business

---

Berger Transfer and Storage

( PRLEAP.COM )

) October 30, 2013 - Saint Paul, Minnesota - Berger Transfer & Storage, a world leader in household goods and specialized transportation services, is pleased to announce that they have won numerous prestigious awards from Allied Van Lines' Agency Convention for excellence in transportation.

The annual convention, held October 15th through October 17th, brought the accolades of Customer Quality Award- Military Packing Services to Berger, Customer Quality Award- Military Destination Services to Berger, and Outstanding Hauler of the year award to Berger. In addition to these awards, Berger Columbus was individually recognized with the Quality- Rising Star Most Improved award.

Berger Transfer & Storage has a long tradition of success at the Allied Agent Convention for being recognized as a leading global mover in the transportation industry. This year's wins follow previous successes for Berger as it was named Agent of the Year in 1994 & 2010.

About Berger Transfer & Storage, Inc. Berger Transfer & Storage, a worldwide mover who celebrated a century of service in 2010, was established in 1910 and is headquartered in Saint Paul, Minnesota. Berger is an experienced leader in household goods and specialized transportation services. With 15 locations nationwide, Berger is Allied Van Lines' largest partner agent and provides relocation and transportation services to residents, corporations and government agencies around the world. Berger has offices in the following markets: Atlanta, Austin, Charlotte, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Louisville, Phoenix, Saint Paul, San Antonio, and Tampa. For more information about Berger Transfer & Storage, please visit www.bergerallied.com .