

(PRLEAP.COM) Advantage Credit Counseling Service's website www.advantagecs.org has been completely redesigned and upgraded. This new design features HTML5 (Responsive Design). That means it is compatible and viewable on any device, including: desktops, laptops, tablets, netbooks, Smart TVs, and mobile phones.

The website redesign is not the only thing Advantage CCS has been working on. The full content library of the website has also undergone a very rigorous review and it's been consolidated to offer the latest information of the utmost importance to our visitors. All content is newly categorized and it is much easier to search and read.

Not only is the new website redesign more visually appealing and easier to use, but it also has some great features like: live chat, updated search feature, related information engine, and a social media widget. The Agency's new website has great online tools, tips, online counseling systems, and helpful resources. Their Blog is highly visited and a trusted source for information about debt counseling, bankruptcy help, and so much more.

Advantage CCS's Live Chat feature is powered and monitored by WhosOn. It offers real-time assistance to their website visitors. You can speak directly to one of their credit counselors with just the click of a button. If their operators are offline, you can send them a private message. The website will now feature a "smart search bar". The Agency has the ability to weigh search results based on content type and provide faster and more relevant results.

At the bottom of almost every page, visitors will see the "Related Information Engine" that offers suggestions to what the visitor is looking at in that particular moment. It displays a list of related articles and posts based on a unique algorithm. It searches through their entire content database to find posts with the same subject matter and adds a link to that post with a thumbnail image.

Automated scrolling social media posts from all of the Agency's social media networks. You can view their latest Tweets, Facebook posts, YouTube videos, Google+ posts, and more. Easily navigate to all of their Social Media profiles and become a Fan or Follower in just seconds. You also have the ability to ReTweet, RePost, Share, and Like any of their posts, right from the
