(PRLEAP.COM) Las Vegas, NV – Law Offices of Garrett T. Ogata, a leading group of Las Vegas DUI attorneys, now offers their expert DUI defense services for out-of-state drivers who were detained and charged in Nevada. The state attracts millions of visitors each year who come to enjoy the attractions of Las Vegas and Reno, as well as recreational areas near lakes and camping sites in the desert. Guests visiting the State of Nevada who may run into law enforcement and face DUI charges now have experienced legal assistance on their side.

Garrett T. Ogata and his legal team of Nevada DUI law professionals provide leading criminal defense for in-state, as well as out-of-state drivers. Those arrested for DUI or DWI in Nevada while driving with an out-of-state license may have to face driving privilege restrictions in their state. To avoid costly penalties and driving restrictions, drivers stopped in Nevada for a DUI should immediately seek the assistance of Garrett T. Ogata and his associates.

Drivers submitted to a Breathalyzer test when they are stopped will have seven days to make contact with the DMV and request a formal hearing. In the event that a blood test is administered, it will take around 3-5 months for the test to be processed. Although a driver's license was issued by a different state, the DMV of Nevada has the authority to contact out-of-state DMVs and place a hold on the driver's license.

The law professionals of Garrett T. Ogata can represent the driver's interests in Nevada. The lawyers will contact the DMV on the driver's behalf to schedule a hearing, deal with the necessary legal paperwork, and accompany the driver during the DMV hearing with the Administrative Law Judge.
