( PRLEAP.COM ) Splash and Relax are pleased to launch their fresh new website. Considerable maintenance was undertaken to ensure customers are able to navigate the site on any platform and enhance their shopping experience with better imagery.

Customers can access the website on mobile, tablet and PC maintaining clear resolution and display of the site. Changes to the websites tool bar have seen easier drop-down menus put in place for customers to easier navigate to their designated products. A smarter header has been added to the website containing contact numbers, delivery information and checkout information. A scrolling banner slide is still employed by the company showcasing special offers on products available.

Splash and Relax have also added brighter, real-life imagery to allow customers to see their product for real and in use. The company are pleased to offer the widest range of Sledges and Toboggans in the UK market today. Plastic, wooden, inflatable sledges and snowboards are all available in high stock from Splash and Relax this Christmas. All sledges ordered on the new website are normally dispatched within the next working day after the day of order. Heavy demand this busy period may delay this by one additional day.

The company have a fresh new look to the product and their description pages. The product options tab allows customers to add an extra accessory to their order, with delivery surcharges always available. An alternatives tab is also present at the bottom of the page revealing products Splash and Relax think may be of interest to the customer on the basis of the item they were currently viewing. Customers can simply add any of the recommended items and update their basket before proceeding to the checkout.

Splash and Relax offer a wide range of leisure products with over 44 brands available to choose from on their new revamped online store. Products from sledges to hot tubs and fireworks to swimming pools, all are available at the best price possible. Splash and Relax also offer a chance to buy in bulk on some of their products.

Splash and Relax provide a news service on their website which can be located in the footer of the page. Customer can find news regarding their favourite products, sales, offers and stock information.

Customers are able to simply checkout with their products via the following Protx (Visa, Visa debit etc), Paypal and Google Checkout. Customers can contact Splash and Relax regarding
