

Announcing 1¢ commissions

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) January 7, 2014 - Canada's lowest commissions are getting even lower. Starting today, Questrade is pleased to announce: 1¢ commissions on stock trades

The Questrade Advantage, our active trader program for everyone, is now offering stock trades as low as 1 cent. When you subscribe to one of the advanced data packages, you can choose your stock commission: 1¢ per share (1¢ min / $6.95 max) or $4.95 flat. Read more about the Advantage

We're proclaiming 2014 the year of saving money. Throughout this month we will publish articles, videos, and help guides designed to keep your money in your pocket. Starting with:

Five ways to supercharge your TFSA

Coming up later in January:

Making budgeting sexy again written by our longtime guest contributor Janine Eccleston from My Pennies, My Thoughts. She'll walk you through setting a budget that won't have you living like a hermit

You can always afford to invest a video on a few simple steps to get you on the path to retiring

The benefits of using DRIPs

(Not the kind you get with a leaky faucet.)

Understanding your account performance

Your account statements are changing? At the end of the month, we'll show you how to read and understand your account performance using the graphics and charts in your new statement.