Eileen and the Handmade Blankets at Safe Babies Healthy Families (PRLEAP.COM) January 11, 2014 - Milwaukee, WI – What started as a project between two caregivers at Always Best Care Senior Services and their 93-year-old client (Eileen), turned into something much more rewarding than anyone involved could have imagined.

On Friday, Dec. 6th at 12:30pm, Eileen, along with her caregivers and the local owner of Always Best Care of Greater Milwaukee, Colleen Foley, visited Safe Babies Healthy Families (137 Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 200, Waukesha, WI) and presented 125 blankets to those in need.

"My client suffers from Alzheimer's disease and has around the clock in home care," explained Ms. Foley. "The caregivers are always looking for new and innovative activities to do with her because she loves to stay busy. With the help of Eileen's two Always Best Care caregivers, Betty and Sally, together they created 125 children's blankets and donated them to Safe Babies Healthy Families in Waukesha."

Eileen has been a client of Always Best Care for the past 18 months. In light of Eileen's Alzheimer's diagnosis, her family wanted her to have constant care, while at the same time allowing Eileen to remain in her home. Caregivers Betty and Sally have been with Eileen from the beginning. In addition to providing the necessary daily care, they keep her involved in a variety of activities. Creating the blankets has been a great project for Eileen – it has kept her busy, engaged and excited, with something to look forward to over the holidays.

What started out as a simple project, blossomed into an act of generosity. It sparked Eileen's daughter Patty to get involved, along with Betty's friend, Ed King. Together they all helped purchase the blanket materials in order to keep the momentum alive, enabling Eileen to create 125 unique blankets.

Safe Babies Healthy Families was selected as the recipients of the gift donations in response to its efforts to help children through the local region. Based in Waukesha, Safe Babies' primary focus is to break the cycle of child abuse, neglect and poverty in communities throughout Southeastern Wisconsin.
