

(PRLEAP.COM) NEWINGTON, CT - Corporate language translation services provider Accents Perfect Translation and The Language Link of Connecticut have been providing quality translation services for the past 18 years. Specializing in more than 40 languages, the company uses only native speakers to translate to and from the English language.

Conducting business in the same location since January 1996, AP Translation specializes in providing quick and accurate services for international companies of all sizes. "We help businesses improve their global capabilities with our expert translation services," said a spokesperson for AP Translation. The company has worked with Fortune 500 clients, as well as small firms.

AP Translation's outperforms other language translation companies providing similar services. Unlike some of the company's competitors, AP Translation works exclusively with native speakers living in the United States or Canada and never relies on automated or online translations. "Translation software often leads to errors and even borders on unethical," said a spokesperson for AP Translation. "We know our linguistic experts personally and communicate on a regular basis with them."

The company offers a range of services for businesses, including legal, technical, and business documents. AP Translations also serves individuals with translation of documents such as diplomas and transcripts, birth and death certificates, marriage licenses and divorce papers, passports, and other personal documents. Other services include medical translation , including medical English to Spanish translation of consent forms and hipaa policies, certified medical translations, as well as hospital brochures, patient education materials and state programs.

AP Translation offers competitive prices by keeping its overhead expenses low. Every translation project is given personal attention by a native speaker and the company's business model with its years of experience ensures that the delivery of each translations will be quick, accurate, and affordable. "When it comes to translation services, we can do it better, faster, and for less money," said a spokesperson for AP Translation. For more information, visit www.aptranslation.com
