( PRLEAP.COM ) NEW YORK - February 28, 2014 - Lampert Capital Markets, Inc. announced today that Tobias Lenza has been appointed as Managing Director - Equity Capital Markets. Mr. Lenza will spearhead the firm's expansion into providing a differentiated equity product to institutional and retail investors on managed offerings as well as formalize syndicate relationships with key investment banks.

"His appointment signals our burgeoning commitment to create a new and proprietary approach to the Equity Capital Markets, in general, and primary equity offerings, in particular. As importantly, Toby embodies the qualities of integrity, candor and respectful behavior that characterize Lampert Capital Markets' approach to clients and employees, alike."

Lenza brings nearly two decades of experience in equity sales and trading. Mr. Lenza served as a NASDAQ market maker responsible for over 100 securities as Head Trader of Savant Trading. Since that time, Mr. Lenza has been actively involved in equity capital markets at a number of firms engaging in both public and private equity transactions. According to Eric Schweitzer, Chief Operating Officer, "Toby brings a traders' sense of timing and an investors' sense of value to every transaction...qualities that will inure to the benefit of each of our equity capital market's clients."

"Toby Lenza's wealth of experience, expertise and industry knowledge has made him a key member of our team," said Randy Lampert, CEO of Lampert Capital Markets. "His appointment signals our burgeoning commitment to create a new and proprietary approach to the Equity Capital Markets, in general, and primary equity offerings, in particular. As importantly, Toby embodies the qualities of integrity, candor and respectful behavior that characterize Lampert Capital Markets' approach to clients and employees, alike."
