

(PRLEAP.COM) Newport Beach, California, March 19, 2014 – Max Alavi, APC is pleased to announce that it has been selected by the Huntington Beach Fire Association IAFF to provide estate planning services to its members. The HBFA represents and supports employees of the Huntington Beach Fire Department, including firefighters and firefighter paramedics. In its many endeavors, the HBFA supports numerous local charities, provides needed assistance to its members with employment, health care and retirement related issues and supports greater awareness for fire safety and prevention.

Mr. Alavi, Partner at Max Alavi, APC, commented on the designation: "The members of the HBFA put their lives on the line everyday in order to make Huntington Beach safe for us all. I am honored that the HBFA has chosen Max Alavi, APC to provide its members with important estate planning information and services. My goal is to educate and inform members about important estate planning related issues like living trusts, avoiding probate, testamentary designation of guardians for minor children and avoiding the avoidable issues with incapacity. I look forward to our continued involvement with the HBFA."

Mr. Alavi, APC attorney at law and at Partner at Alavi & Broyles, LLP has been practicing law for over 22 years. He focuses his practice on assisting clients establish effective and secure vehicles for passing their assets to their loved ones. Mr. Alavi is rated "Excellent" in estate planning and probate by AVVO and is an AARP/ALLSTATE Legal Plan attorney. His practice also includes assisting trustees manage and settle trust assets and navigating probate related issues. He can be contacted at 949.706.1919 or at info@alavibroyles.com . He publishes a regular blog on estate planning issues at www.alavibroyles.com

.