

Max Alavi, APC to give Estate Planning Presentation to Newport Beach Firefighters

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) Newport Beach, California, March 25, 2014 – Max Alavi, APC is pleased to announce it was invited by the Newport Beach Fire Department to make a presentation to its firefighters at their annual meeting in April 2014. Max Alavi, partner at Max Alavi, APC, will present on numerous estate planning related topics including: living trusts, how to avoid probate, testamentary designation of guardians for minor children and avoidable issues with incapacity. The presentation was designed to give attendees a better idea of how to plan for the future and avoid the worst.

Mr. Alavi commented on the on the success of the presentation: "It was an honor and pleasure to make an estate planning presentation to the firefighters of the Newport Beach Fire Department. Every day, they put their lives on the line to keep the community safe. It was my goal to educate and inform the firefighters on estate planning basics so that they may be able to make best decisions for themselves and their families when it comes to the tough estate planning decisions. I enjoyed my interaction with the firefighters and I look forward to my continued involvement with the Newport Beach Fire Department."

Mr. Alavi, attorney at law and partner at Max Alavi, APC, has been practicing law for over 22 years. He focuses his practice on assisting clients establish effective and secure vehicles for passing their assets to their loved ones. Mr. Alavi is rated "Excellent" in estate planning and probate by AVVO and is an AARP/ALLSTATE Legal Plan attorney. His practice also includes assisting trustees manage and settle trust assets and navigating probate related issues. He can be contacted at 949.706.1919 or at info@alavibroyles.com . He publishes a regular blog on estate planning issues at www.alavibroyles.com