Frontline Source Group, temporary staffing and direct hire firm, has been named the Best Staffing Firm to Work For by Staffing Industry Analysts. Frontline was recognized in San Diego at the Staffing Industry Analysts' Executive Forum where Bill Kasko, CEO accepted the award. Winners were named as a result of an employee survey administered by Quantum Workplace.

"We are thrilled to receive this award and would like to thank our talented staff for contributing towards our success and making Frontline such a great place to work," said Kasko. "I am proud to be surrounded by such a hardworking team and truly appreciate each member of the Frontline family. We look forward to continuing to stand out in our industry and maintaining such a positive work environment."

Nearly 140 staffing firms were surveyed by Quantum Workplace, an independent research firm and global advisor on contingent work. Internal employees were given a 40-question survey to measure engagement and satisfaction to be compiled and evaluated by the Staffing Industry Analysts. Teamwork, trust in senior leadership, compensation and benefits were among the categories included in the internal survey.

"Our employees are our most valuable asset and make Frontline an inspiring place for each team member to grow," said Shelly Hubble, Vice President. "We are proud to receive this recognition and proud of everyone who helps make Frontline a top-quality workplace."
