

North Hollywood Toyota Won the Very Coveted President's Award for 2013 for Los Angeles Region

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) April 15, 2014 - North Hollywood, CA – The Los Angeles Toyota dealership joins the ranks of leading Toyota dealers in the US as the recipient of the 2013 President's Award. Their "ginormous" selection of vehicles from the top automotive brands and markets of the world, coupled with "little bitty prices" high customer satisfaction scores from their customers are just a part of the reason they have achieved award-winning success.

According to Chris Ashworth, Vice President & General Manager of North Hollywood Toyota, "This takes time, dedication and hard work by the entire team in all departments. We've been so close in recent years, but it is called the President's Award for a reason. It is a great achievement, Toyota's top recognition for a job well done, and it is not easy to earn. We're thankful to our staff for doing all the right things in as many areas as possible. But we really want to thank our customers and our community for making this opportunity a possibility at all. We are truly grateful."

North Hollywood Toyota has been serving Los Angeles and the surrounding communities since 1967. They are one of the larger Los Angeles car dealerships serving the entire Southern California area. Also known as Noho Toyota, this Toyota dealer(s) offers a complete suite of automotive products and services, including Toyota and Scion vehicles, certified preowned Toyotas, hybrids, used cars, auto loans and auto leases, and auto repair and maintenance, an auto body shop, and authentic Toyota parts and accessories. The NoHo Toyota dealer prides itself on providing customers with a great car dealership experience that is fast and right the first time. Look at their ongoing specials for military, college grads and business solutions. In addition, they honor all factory rebates, incentives, special APRs and factory warranties.

For additional information about North Hollywood Toyota and their "Ginormous Selection and Little Bitty Prices," visit their official website at www.northhollywoodtoyota.com . Call them at 818-508-2967 or visit the dealership in person at: 4606 Lankershim Blvd., North Hollywood, CA. You can also shop for Toyota cars online and take advantage of the many tools offered on their site to help you make an educated decision about your next vehicle.

About North Hollywood Toyota North Hollywood Toyota is an award-winning Toyota dealership in the Los Angeles/San Fernando Valley Northern Hollywood that serves the entire Southern California region. They are one of the leading choices for purchasing new and certified used Toyota cars and trucks. They pride themselves on providing a great car dealership experience that is fast and right the first time. They are located in North Hollywood, California.

North Hollywood Toyota Won the Very Coveted President's Award for 2013 for Los Angeles Region

Written by Australian Business