

(PRLEAP.COM) April 23, 2014 - The International Lawyers Network (ILN) has been recognized by Chambers and Partners for the third year in a row as a Global Leading Law Firm Network in their annual global guide to the world's leading law firms. The ranking reinforces the high quality of the ILN's member firms around the world.

Chambers noted that "The group offers impressive coverage in Europe, Central America and the USA, with further representation in major jurisdictions in Asia, the Middle East and Latin America."

"We're delighted to have received this prestigious ranking from Chambers, one of the premiere rankings guides in the legal industry. It is a direct reflection on the high quality and hard work of our member firms around the world," said the ILN's Director of Global Relationship Management, Lindsay Griffiths.

About the ILNThe International Lawyers Network facilitates personal relationships among lawyers in mid-sized law firms all over the world, allowing them to confidently operate in a global marketplace while retaining their independence and local expertise. As one of the largest networks of experienced attorneys in the world, the ILN provides a platform for clients to access quality legal professionals worldwide with the cost-effectiveness and personalized service only independent, regional law firms can provide. With 91 high-quality, full-service and specialized law firms and over 5,000 lawyers in 66 countries on six continents, the excellence, demonstrated experience, worldwide presence, and relationships of the International Lawyers Network combine to make this Network one of the leading associations of independent law firms in the world.
