

(PRLEAP.COM) San Marcos, California - Frankel Photography, located in San Marcos, California, is having a big wedding and Bar Mitzvah photo package sale, offering customers a 10% discount on the package of their choice for these special events.

Owned by the San Diego photographer Albert Frankel, Frankel Photography, offers customers more than three decades of experience. Frankel says he believes that customer services and professionalism go hand-in-hand when photographing a family's special occasion.

"We are happy to offer this discount on our top quality photography services for the summer months," said Frankel. "We know that these events can be very costly for a family so we'd like to make it a little easier for them use our professional photography services for their wedding or Bar Mitzvah."

The summer sale at Frankel Photography will continue until September 15, 2013.

Frankel also has enough experience in the photography business to know that using the most advanced equipment and lighting is the only way to deliver the very best photographic images to his clients. In addition to traditional lighting methods, Frankel Photography starting using state of the art LED lighting when working on a photo shoot. "LED lighting gives us much greater ability to create images that are guaranteed to amaze," said Frankel.

As lead photographer at Frankel Photography, Al Frankel brings an extensive portfolio of knowledge and experience to every event he covers. His uncanny camera sense and ability to capture the moment comes through in the warmth and style of his work.

Heather Frankel is also a significant member of the Frankel Photography team. Specializing in digital image processing and album design, Heather's skills play an essential part in turning photographs into treasured memories.

About Frankel Photography: San Marcos, California-based Frankel Photography is based just outside San Diego. The company offers more than 27 years experience in professional photography, specializing in wedding photography, Bar and Bat Mitzvah photography, special event photography, pet photography and portrait photography.

Frankel Photography Offers Discounts on Wedding, Bar Mitzvah Packages Through September 15

Written by Australian Business

For more information about Frankel Photography visit their website or call 760-402-2531.