

Fort Washakie Author Publishes New Spiritual Self-Help Book

Written by Australian Business

(PRLEAP.COM) "Letter to God, Letter to Mom, Letter to You?," a new book by Larry L. Zeiler, has been released by RoseDog Books.

While in a time of trouble how do you cope with what is going on? "Letter to God, Letter to Mom, Letter to You?" was written during thirty days while the author did a lot of self-examination in order to gain a closer relationship with God. It was the only way the author felt he could tell his feelings and beliefs.

The letters to God were written with knowledge of God and the Bible and how the author felt he needed to speak to God and feel like his prayers were being answered. Letters to Mom were letters of what he should have sent in years past, but didn't write or wrote and never sent. Letters to You are letters examining his motives.

When reading, think on how we show ourselves to God and present ourselves to those we love.

About the Author:Larry L. Zeiler grew up in a Lutheran home. He spent twenty-five years working farms and ranches in Wyoming, Montana, and Nebraska. With the work along came family; but it ended in a divorce that tore apart his life. It is a life of hard work and self education that brought the author to this point and with God leading the way he will continue on.

"Letter to God, Letter to Mom, Letter to You?" is a 84-page hardcover with a retail price of $9.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4349-0387-6. It was published by RoseDog Books, an imprint of Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
